

Behind 'Mosaics and More' is...

Barbara Bussler, native of Munich, Germany. Once settled on the West Coast of the US with my husband and son in 1997 I have been creating unique colorful mosaics and paper art since 2001. I love to combine used and new materials like mosaic and antique tiles, vitreous glass, broken dishes and mugs, shells, wood, rocks, -- basically anything that can be incorporated into a mosaic. That's what makes this art so interesting and diverse! Wherever I am or travelling I find and collect materials for my mosaics (and other works I do occasionally). I really love bold colors and you find this reflected throughout my work.

It was one of my friends' ideas to offer a class for children to make a mosaic mirror, as her daughter always asked for making 'something' with me when they visited. The mirror she made at her birthday party is still proudly displayed in their home. But this is just as much fun for any age group - how about decorating a box, a picture frame or a stepping stone? Or for you and a group of friends getting together at your home in the evening. Bring some appetizers or desserts and you have a guaranteed recipe for a fun creative night. The party/class can be adjusted to your personal needs and wishes.

Even if you have never made a mosaic you will find that is such a wonderful creative activity that might very well result in a piece of fine art, an unusual design element or a very personal keepsake piece. Contact me for any requests or questions you might have, as that broken plate or teapot you don't want to throw away can be incorporated into something new, beautiful and useful again. Just call or email me to discuss the possibilities.
